Vajrasattva : means Vajra/Dorje Sattva/mind. The vajra symbolizes thunderbolt and diamond. It is a weapon which is used as a ritual object to symbolize both the properties of a diamond (indestructibility) and a thunderbolt (irresistible force). Vajrasattva sits on a lotus with crossed legs, the right hand holding a vajra and on the left the bell on the hip.

Vajrasattva practice is a tantric meditation, done for the purification of karma, purification of obscuration and also to purify any broken Samaya vows. As a Mahayana practice, it is undertaken with a bodhicitta aim to purify all our karma in order to reach enlightenment as quickly as possible, and to be best able to help all sentient beings and to help them liberate.

So this practice is very useful for all because every day we are doing or thinking negative things. We do negative things intentionally and unintentionally, like making someone sad or hurt, talking negatively of someone, stamping on an insects, etc. Things like these are done every day so this practice will help us purify and be better persons.
