Fire puja is the perfect offering:

First, to all Buddhas and Bodhisattvas throughout the ten direction and the Buddha of three times (past, present and future) as well as to the yidam deities of all the mandalas.

Secondly, you are offering to the protectors of the Dharma, dakinis, and very high spiritual gods who protect the Dharma.

The third class of guests includes all sentient beings, particularly local deities and elemental spirits. Finally, you are offering to hungry ghosts and to beings with whom you are karmically indebted.

When making offering to the buddhas and bodhisattvas our defilement and negativities will purify. When making offering to the dharma protectors we cultivate auspiciousness for this life and the many lives to come to be successful in whatever we do.

For all sentient beings we make offering to liberate from suffering and to reach enlightenment.

And when we make offering to the hungry ghost and the karmically indebted, the hungry ghosts get satisfied with our offering and to our karmically indebted our any kinds of debts are returned.
